

Celebrated Birth Anniversary of Bhikaji Cama (24.09.2018)

Birth anniversary of famous freedom fighter Bhikaji Cama was celebrated in the college campus. Bhikaji Cama also called Madam Cama. She began her political career as secretary of Dada Bhai Naoroji. Dr. Meenu Agrawal, Principal, told about her immense contribution and courage in India's freedom struggle. She served and provided medical care for many plague patients and subsequently, contracted the plague herself, but survived.

She was the brave lady to first hoist India's flag on foreign soil. She was invited to hoist the flag over the parliament in Germany, but she refused and hoisted 'Flag of Indian Independence'. On this flag, 8 lotuses represented 8 provinces, the colours green and yellow and red represented Islam, Hinduism and Buddhism respectively. The crescent and the Sun again represented Islam and Hinduism.

On this occasion, IGNOU co-coordinator Dr. Sarika Garg, Faculty of Home Science Department, Dr. Sudha Agarwal, Head of Computer Department, Mrs. Namrta Sharma, Faculty of Home Science Department, Mrs. Shikha Tyagi and Ms. Jyoti Rawal and IQAC Coordinator Mrs. Nutan Singh were present.
